lighters and passengers are taken ashore in boats and small scows, from which in some instances, they are landed by cradles swung from derricks.

Where the Ohio is aground she will be in danger in the event of heavy weather as the place is exposed to the full sweep of the sea.

The Ohio is an iron screw fourmasted steamer, with barking, built at the yards of the Cramps, at Philadelphia, in 1873. Sae is a vessel of 3,488 tons, with two docks and a spar deck, and is 343 feet long, has 43 feet beam and 24.9 feet depth. Her engines were built by J. Howden & Co. of Glasgow. For the greeter part of the 34 years she has been in commission the Ohio was used on the Atlantic and was brought to the Pacific consiby the White Star line, which purchased her, together with the Indiana and other vessels, for use in the Klondike trade, but recently was transferred to the Alaskan run, and was making her first trip north when she met with misfortune.

f the steamer will be lost, but fears, re entertained on this score for she id not have time before the strand-ing to land the large cargo of general terchandise taken from Scattle.

After a long discussion the assembly approved the establishment of a theological college in British Columbia, to open its session in the summer of 1998.

In response to overture from the west it was decided to appoint a special mission superintendent for British Columbia. At present one superintendent has charge of Alberta and British Columbia.

Principal Serlinger announced that Dr. R. E. Welch would accept the chair of apologeties in the Montreal Presbyterian college, Principal Serlinger expressed his sincere regret that in an entirely unpremeditated way he had made certain remarks regarding an honorable member of the assembly (Dr. Sedgwick) and so an unpleasant episode ended.

ORCHARD DETAILS PLOT TO ASSASSINATE PEABODY

Accuses Moyer of Personal Hatred Against Colorado Governor

THE MURDER OF STEUNENBERG

for the Sake of Reaching In-

Boise, June 12.—With the resumption of the Haywood trial at 9:30 o'clock this morning, the cross-examination of Harry Orchard by Attorney Richardson for the defense was contracted.

Attorney Richardson began at once to question Orchard regarding his conference with Charles H. Moyer at the latter's home in Denver about April, 1905. Orchard testified yesterday that Moyer, Pettibone and Haywood told him at this time to go to Canyon City, Colo., to "get" Peabody, Moyer's home was in the Aberdeen fats. Orchard said he went there at his own volition. He had not seen Moyer for a year or more before. The witness was not sure how the Peabody matter came up or who spoke of it first.

Moyer said he wanted to get rid of Peabody, so no one else would follow in his footsteps. Peabody had gone out of office at this time. They gave good reasons for wanting to get rid of Peabody. Moyer also had a feeling of personal enmity toward Peabody, Orchard said, blaming him for being the cause of his arrest. Orchard said Pettibone asked him to get a position as life insurance solicitor before going to Canyon City. He got letters of recommendation from several persons, among them Mr. Hawkins, a law partner of Mr. Richardson.

Haywood later told Orchard he had made a mistake in getting a letter from Hawkins, for he might involve the attorney, who had been representing the Pederation. The casing of the Peabody bomb prepared at Canyon city has been placed in evidence. Richardson wanted to know today why Orchard had not made a large bomb Orchard said he had planned to place the bomb outside the house and beneath the window, where Peabody often sat in the evening. The fact that the bomb might aiso kill Mrs. Peabody and the children, made no impression upon him, Orchard declared.

The witness said he made a pretense of insurance soliciting, but did

"Yes,"

of worthless paper and took their money."

"Yes."

Orchard said he had plenty of money out of the scheme. The plan to blow up Peabody meanwhile had been abandoned because Peabody had stopped sitting by the window. Richardson tried to get the exact dates of orchard's travels while in the hail insurance busness, and being unsuccessful, he attempted to secure from the witness an admission that he had been coached not to permit the inquisitor to pin him down to any place or date. In this he aiso failed. Orchard merely insisting that he had been admonished to "tell the truth."

When the hail insurance business gave out, Orchard returned to Denver and "went to work on Judges Gabbert and Goddard." Orchard said that Petithone had agents out in the country soliciting orders for his house specialties, such as carpet sweepers, clothes wringers, etc. These men sometimes solicited life insurance. Orchard told of talking with Petithone about the Goddard and Gabbert affairs in the basement of the Petithone store. He said there was a tin box in the place, "which did not look good to me." He made the Goddard and Gabbert bombs in the basement, he said, Petithone having the powder for them buried in his yard. The Gabbert bomb eventually killed a man named Wally; the Goddard bomb never exploded. Orchard then told of attempts to "get"

The Second Dissolution.

This was in November, 1830; but it was only the beginning of the fight. The new government was composed partly of old Whigs and new Radicals; but happily the new Radicals had the drafting of the Reform bill. It was a drastic—almost a revolutionary—measure. Fifty-nine boroughs were disfranchised outright, and forty-seven lost one of their members. The vacant seats were distributed to the new towns. The Tories received the bill with shouts of laughter. But the Radicals were delighted; the reform party closed up its ranks; and the bill, brought in on March I, passed its second reading by a majority of one.

So far, so good, But it was clear that another dissolution was necessary, and the Reformers faced it cheerfully. The

At first sight the most direct and the most obvious means of forging this link appears to be by the establishment of a fast service of steamers between a British and a Canadian port; but there is an alternative scheme, which, while leaving Great Britain and Canada at the terminals of the chain, would, as its supporters claim, not only without niturests, but with positive advantages to both, include Newfoundland, out odest colony, as an integral part of the plan. There is reason to believe that this scheme was formally brought to the notice of the Home Government and of the Colonial Premiers by Sir Robert Bond, and its claims will, no doubt, meet with the fullest consideration at the hands of the comittee of experts to whom Mr. Lloyd-George suggested that all the proposals put forward should be referred. In Newfoundland the scheme has been fully and exhaustively discussed in both Houses of the Legislature, and has met with the unanimous and enthusiastic support of the entire population, from the Governor downwards. An incident of recent ccurrence has instilled into the minds of many thoughtful persons who are opposed to Home Rule the disturbing suggestion that perhaps they should in all honesty revise their convictions on that point. This was the granting the full responsible government to the conquered Boers of South Africa, who promptly placed in the premier's chair one of the leaders of the Boer army during the late war. Friends of Ireland can easily be pardoned for the belief that Great Britain would be taking an inconsistent attitude in refus ing to regard the people of Ireland as equally worthy of trust as those who endeavored to tear down the British flag in South Africa. The problem of Ireland is a most complex one and we fancy we discern on the horizon indications which portend that Ireland and her grievances are to

The Times asks if the Governor-

General is in the habit of giving crelentials to provincial premiers with out the advice of his ministers. We ficient instances of this nature to establish a "habit," but we do know that there are some branches of the royal prerogative which the Governor, General exercises as of course, al-though his ministers must accept the responsibility for them. All that the Colonist said in that connection was that Mr. McBride's credentials were not issued by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as the Times had alleged, but by the Governor-General. As a matter of fact Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not in Canada when the credentials were issued, and was probably not consulted in any way about them. But there is more in this matter than a simple quibble. Mr. McBride went to London to exercise the right of petition to every man. This right no one, be is with the people, even in the case of many public officials, which fact ties the government's hands." Perhaps it is unfair to charge, as does John Redistrict of the province to Longram of the Longram was something in the nature of a credential. The representative of the rown in Canada is the Governor-General, and the constitutional channel through which a Canadian approaches the crown is the Governor-General. No Canadian premier would advise the Governor-General not to grant what we have called credentials for want of a better name. The rights of the subject are not yet so abridged by the Liberal party that it is only by the favor of the Premier of Canada

PREPARE FOR INGREASED TRAFFIC

Hosmer Mines Will Open Next Year and Extra Transportation Facilities Will be Required

A great deal of money is being spent by the Canadian Pacific in improving the Crow's Nest Pass railway. In all probability the company will expend $3,000,000 or more before the work on this exceedingly difficult route is completed. During last year over half a million dollars was spent putting down new steel and ballasting on the Cranbrook and Sirdar sections. spent ballasting the Lethbridge

A cutoff near the Belly river grade is under consideration, which will reduce the grade from over 1 per cent to a maximum of 6 per cent. This scheme involves the construction of a million dollar bridge over the Belly river, which will replace thirty-live trestles and other structures, nineteen of which run from 100 to 1,000 feet in length and for 60 to 100 feet high, and which at present cost the company large sums annually for repairs.

A new station will be built at Frank this year at a cost of $3,000, while $30,-000 will be spent at Cranbrook in extending the roundhouse and other improvements. The whole line is being put into shape for very much more extensive traffic when the Crow's Nest Coal company's monopoly runs out next year, and the C. P. R. coal fields at Hosmer will be open for operations.

ping Ore in Sixty Days.

Construction of the wharf at the Hidden Creek mines, Goose Bay, Observatory Inlet, some sixty-five miles from Port Simpson, has now been almost completed and by the end of August the syndicate which is developing these promising copper properties expects to start shipping ore to the smelters. The Hidden Creek Mining company is headed by Messrs. S. S. Raymond, manager of the Britannia smelter at Crofton, president, and J. T. Hissis of Vancouver, manager of this property. A wagon road is now being built from, the wharf to the mines, distant but one mile and a quarter, and with the completion of the wharf the ore bins, with a capacity of 1,750 tons, already under construction, will be ready for ore.

A. R. Nickels, a mining engineer and smelter man of Colorado, has just returned from Goose Bay, where he made an exhaustive examination of the properties. Mr. Nickels states that he is satisfied that with development these mines will turn into one of the great properties of the coast.

of Fall Fair.

New Westminster, June 11.—It is probable that the poulry show will, after all, be a feature of this year's exhibition. The display of fowls was so poor last year that it had been virtually decided by the board of management to hold no further show of this sort. It had been planned to give the old poultry house over to the dogs, and in fact all arrangements were being made for a dog show to be held in this hall. The matter, however, was reconsidered at a meeting of the management of the fair held recently, and it was then decided that it would be advisable to continue the show.
The idea of helding a dog show has by no means dropped. The local Kennel Club is at work upon the project now, and should they decide to hold it, the Exhibition Society will take immediate steps to provide some room for them.

RESIGNATION DEMANDED.

Vancouver Aldermen After the Scalp of City Engineer Clement.

Like a bolt from the blue came the Like a bolt from the blue came the motion at the city council on Monday evening calling for the resignation of the city engineer, says the Vancouver World. The city engineer was present and had answered several questions and had been asked to bring in a number of reports. He was sitting at the reporters' table when Alderman Heaps arose and moved the following resolution, seconded by Alderman Mc-Spadden:

There was also the matter of the waterworks extension and they had to have a special consulting engineer in that connection. He felt that the city should have a man that was an expert, or at least a good all round man, in all work required by the city.

Alderman Ramsay did not wish to express any opinion on the matter at this stage, but he certainly thought that it was serious enough to call for serious consideration. He thought the proper place to initiate such a proceeding would have been in the board of public works. He called for a notice of motion.

Too Bad

Too Bad

There is a sweet girl in Washington with a most saintly patience, but even she could not resist the tempiation recently to let fly a little arrow. He was about nincteen, but weary, oh, very weary! He had made a call of perhaps two hours, all ghat fattles, was beginning to feel some state of the said saily. "I really never expect to care for a woman again. I made a fool of myself over it once."

"And you never get over anything? Too bad?" she said sympathetically. And he smoked a whole box of cigarettes thinking it over afterward.

Will Start Music Class
Among the visitors in Victoria yesterday was Herr Henri Rousseau, of Vancouver, who intends starting a class in music in Victoria, coming over here two days a week for the purpose of giving instruction. Herr Rousseau has studied in Leipzig, Germany, in the Royal Conservatory, and under Heighinaler, in Berlin under Leopold Godowski and in Vienna under Theodore Leichetiszay. He is the composer of several well known selections, among them a nocturnal "Moonlight," "Grand Valse di Concert in E" and "Symphony, Opus 12, No. 2."

Poultry for Dawson

J. J. Dougan, of Grandview Poultry Yards, Cobble Hill, will ship by the Princess May today 200 of his heavy laying White Leghorns, their destination being Dawson, Y. T. This is no doubt the largest shipment of thoroughbred poultry ever sent from British Columbia to the Klondyke, and probably also the largest single shipment from the province to any place.
The Grandview Poultry Yards propose increasing their yards this season, the present accommodation being inadequate to supply the increased demand for breeding stock and keep up

Play is Success

At the French Alliance last evening in the Balmoral parlors, a little comedy was produced, entitled "Dire et faire sont deux," which proved very successful. Miss Loenholm was very good in her part as a worthy but irritable widow, as was also Miss Henry as a charming young girl, her daughter. Mr. C. Loewenberg played with a good deal of talent the role of an excellent, though rather selfish bachelor brother-In-law to the widow. Mdllc. Kerpezdron was a very anusing servant and full of fun. The actors must be congratulated and thanked for the ontertainment afforded the members ontertainment afforded the members of the society and their friends who attended in numbers. It is to be hoped by those who were present that similar pieces may be produced, when the society adjourns for the summer, to meet again in September.

SENT TO JAIL DESPITE PLEA OF INNOCENCE

Months For Theft of Money From Chinaman

Protesting his innocence and declar-ing that a small sum of money, which he had been convicted of stealing, was his own. Peter Hansen was led off of the police court yesterday morning to be taken to the provincial jail, there to serve a term of twelve months at hard labor.

The charge against Hansen was that early Wednesday morning he did for-cibly enter the premises of Cho John, cibly enter the premises of Cho John, a Chinese restaurant keeper adjoining the Royal Arms hotel, and steal $4. Joe Jim, a nephew of Cho John, was the chief witness for the prosecution. Through an interpreter he told the court that he had Jocked up the restaurant about 1 o'clock and left togo home. There was a one dollar bill, two silver dollars, some twenty-five, ten and five cent pleces in a drawer of the table when he left. After leaving the place he heard a noise in the rear of the restaurant and ran pect was held until a policeman arrived when he was taken to the police

Lin Chew corroborated that part of Joe's evidence in which he figured and testified further that he had seen the accused loltering suspiciously around the rear of the restaurant about half an hour before the excitement component.

his head through the opening and called for Joe. He received no reply and turned to leave when he was tackled by the Chinaman who had been the chief witness against him. He did not know what the trouble was about until Lin Chew put in an appearance and then he was informed that he had stolen the Chinaman's moey. He denied the charge, and waited for the arrival of a policeman in order that he might explain. A policeman came along in a couple of minutes and arrested him.

which are to be enforced by the United States government commencing at the beginning of next month. From July the tax demanded from other than canadians or Mexicans entering the United States will be four dollars, instead of two, as at present, and some changes are to be made in the manifests demanded from shipping carrying immigrants to the United States, or in transit thereto.

Mr. Clark discussing the changes to a reporter for the Colonist, said that under the new regulations, a residence of one year in Canada would constitute Canadian citizenship, no matter what nationality, other than Orientals, of course. The intending visitor to the United States will be asked: "Have you lived in Canada for one year?", instead of "Are you a Canadian citizen?".

Other cnanges would be that it would have hereafter to be shown on the manifests from what place the immigrants came, and the name of the nearest relative. Additional information would also be sought from arrivals as to their intentions with regard to naturalization.

Notice is hereby given that the court of revision for the above municipality will sit at the numicipal office on Glanford avenue, on Friday, June 28, 1907, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of revising and correcting the assessment roll. All complaints must be filed at least ten days before the first sitting of the court.

Welcome News to Fans.

The announcement that Victoria is to have a baseball team will prove welcome news to the fæns, who have been longing for their favorite past time ever since they had a taste of it during the Victoria bay celebration when the Ballard and Everett teams played here. Victoria is a good ball town, and with a good team like that which Manager Armstrong proposes to furnish the local public the game should prove very popular. Manager Armstrong intends to use this year's team as a feeler for next year, it is too late to get into an organized league this season, but if the fans show that they are prepared to give a team the proper financial support Victoria will be represented in league baseball next year, very likely in the newly-organized Washington State league has

Our Pigmy Ancestors

The armor of the knights of the middle ages is too small for their modern descendants. Handliton Smith records that two Englishmen of average dimensions found no sult large cough to fit either of them in the great collection of Samuel Meyrick. The head of the Oriental sabre will not admit English hand, nor the bracelet of the Kafft warrior the English arm. The swords found in Roman tunnil have handles income itentify small, and the great mediacyal two-handed sword is now supposed to have been used only for one or two blows at the first onset. A Quaker Fad

Luncheon served in carriages lined up along the kerbstone is the latest fad introduced in Philadelphia. This innovation was witnessed when a carriage containing a man and a woman fashionably dressed was stopped in front of a Chestnut street restaurant. The coachman got down from his seat and hastened into the restaurant, and in a short time a waiter appeared on the sidewalk with a trayful of edibles. The food was handed into the carriage, and the occupants fell to cating in full view of passers-by. The idea promises to become popular among shoppers, who, as a rule, find the public dining rooms crowded just about the time they want their luncheons, says the Philadelphia Record.

Blacklock Wins Large Sum
New York; June 12.—With the exception of the purchase of Blacklock, 2.971/2, one of the inchance in several years was consummated yesterday when Waiter Cox purcased from the Woody Hill stock farm, of Salem, N.Y., the fast pacer, Jerry B. 2.12½, for a long price, which is somewhere between $12,-000 and $15,000. Of course the price gaid by Frank Jones for Highball, $17,500, and the prices that Major Delmar and George C. brought at the blue ribbon sale, are also considered of great importance, but the sum paid by Cox for this pacer is the largest, with one exception, that has been paid for any side-wheeler during the past four or five years.

Appearance should not be THE essential of a piano. It should be AN essential.

The New Scale Williams are masterpieces of architectural beauty. They are ornaments to every home. They lend an elegance, a refinement, that nothing else can fill. They are made in all woods and colors to harmonize with the drawing-room, parlor, den and hall.

The veneers for the New Scale Williams Pianos are of every fine kind of wood—principally MAHOGANY from Spain, Brazil and the West Indies—WALNUT, from France and the Circassus—QUARTEERD OAK AND SATINWOODS from the southlands.

There are four veneers on the case—two inside and two outside. They are cross banded—that is, the grain of each veneer runs in a different direction from the one next to it—thus adding strength.

The case of the

is made of five thicknesses of hardwood. All woods used in the New Scale Williams—in case as well as action—are seasoned for three years after reaching Oshawa. Then they are perfectly dry—can never swell or shrink—and wear like iron.

Every New Scale Williams receives seven coats of varnish. Each is allowed to sink in the wood and dry, before the next is put on. This gives the brilliant, lasting finish that is so admired. The sympathetic touch—the magnificent tone—the sweetness and volume of the New Scale Williams are fully in keeping with its exquisite appearance.

Japanese Line Being Improved— Vessels Under Construction— Amur Returns From North

Capt. J. W. Troup, superintendent of e C. P. R. Steamship Company, who s been to Ottawa to attend the setting of the Dominion Lighthouse aard arrived home yesterday by the samer Charmer, and tells of the alds navigation to be established, some which will be of the most up-toof which will be of the most up-to-date character. A newly invented fog-bell is to be installed in connection with new light and fog stations authorized for Helen Point, at the near end of Active Pass, and Chatham Point, Johnston Straits. A lighthouse of similar character to others on the Vancouver Island coast is also to be placed without delay, near Hesquoit. Capt. Troup visited the head office of the C. P. R. at Montreal during his eastern trip, but had little to report with regard to changes intended for the local fleet. He would not confirm the report that the contract for firm the report that the contract for the new Princess—steamer had been new Princess steamer had been Stating that the plans had just hed England. In this flame ignites the accumulated gas which explodes firing the steel ball from the cannon against the bell with considerable force thus sounding the bell. The ball then falls back automatically into the cannon, blocking the cylinder for the next accumulation of gas in preparation for another discharge. As soon as sufficient gas has been accumulates it oozes from the little hole to the flame and again the ball is discharged and the bell sounded. The interval between sounds can be regulated at any time.

Tosa Maru Brings Further Advices of Accident on the Tango Maru.

Further advices regarding the fire on board the steamer Tango Maru were received by the Japanese steamer Tosa Maru yesterday. The fire took place in the hold of the Tango Maru three days before her arrival at Yokohama from this port.

From the report of Capt. Moses it appears that the fire started in No. 1 haid where a quantity of raw cotton was stored. By the desperate efforts of the crew, however, the flames were got under control in about an hour. Some 20 bales out of 100 of cotton consigned to Yokohama were destroyed, while 10 casks of tobaccoleaves belonging to the Mitsul Bussan Kalsha were also damaged by water. The cause of the fire was not ascertained.

Regina, June 11.—The local committee of arrangements for the big provincial banquet to Premier Scott on the 21st inst. are being deluged with letters from all parts of the provinces written by prominent Liberals and written by prominent Liberals and secretaries of associations stating their intention of being present. At a meeting of the committee held last evening over 1,000 letters were read, conveying word of parties who were coming, ranging in number all the way from an individual to groups of 50, who were arranging for private cars. Present indications are that the number attending the banquet from outside points will far exceed the expectations of the local committee. by prominent les of associ

Her present war and navy budget provides for increased expenditure of $50,000,000 during the next eight years, in volving complete reorganization of fortifications and construction of several new battleships and torpedo destroyers. Spain may also advance a concrete proposition for a maximum armament for each country based upon population and territory, colonial swell as at home.

Upon only one question is Spain likely to be at loggerheads with England, the adoption of the drago doctrine. Unlike England, Spain favors this principle. Spain will also probably favor the creation of a permanent tribunal at The Hague, composed of eminent international jurists, who will inspire the confidence of disputnents as being above national political spaces.

The Colonel succeeded in temporarily calming the men by promising to investigate charges of brutality brought against the sergeants, but the military authorities consider that the spirit of troops is bad, all soldiers, being in sympathy with the movement of the wine growers.

Montpeller, June 11.—After the ap-

Montpeller, June 11.—After the announcement of the resignation of the municipal council here yesterday evening in accordance with the wine growers' programme, the arrest of a youth for carrying a banner bearing the inscription, "March on to Paris, Long live the Revolution," led to serious disorders. The Hussars were called out and charged the people repeatedly. A number of persons were injured, and calm was only restored by the release of the prisoners.

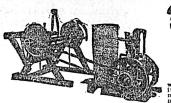

mon error treatment is treating the result of your aliment and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach scheeners, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, billousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by Cyrus H. Bowes.

There's a need in every home of a medicine that by cleansing and invigorating the liver, kidneys and bowels will remove all poisonous waste matter from the blood, cure billousness, kidney derangements and constipation, and by so doing prevent fevers, colds, dropsy and Bright's disease. No medicine satisfies the need so well as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, as is proven by the testimonials appearing in all leading newspapers.
